Dear Students,

Welcome to Cuyamaca College, where we are celebrating our 40th anniversary of transforming the lives of students like you who are following their dreams by earning a degree, securing a certificate, transferring to a four-year college or university, or being trained in the skills needed to find a good-paying job in a high-demand industry.

Each year, nearly 10,000 students from throughout San Diego’s East County region enroll at our beautiful Rancho San Diego campus, where dedicated faculty and staff have your best interests in mind. An accredited college that works closely with our community partners, Cuyamaca is constantly evolving to meet the needs of our students. That’s why we are pleased this year to provide a number of new course additions ranging from Digital Drawing and Painting (ART 177) and Mechatronics: Introduction to Microcontrollers and Robotics (Computer Science 175) to Adobe Acrobat for the Workplace (Business Office Technology 133) and Black Literature (English 238).

In addition to academic excellence, Cuyamaca College is proud of its Hispanic Serving Institution designation, offering an abundance of rich cultural activities as part of our commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion. The Samuel M. Ciccati Performing Arts Center is home to the new ECHO Chamber Music Series that is attracting some of the world’s top classical musicians to our campus. Up to 5,000 people attend our annual Spring Garden & Butterfly Festival each April. The Native American Student Alliance’s annual Powwow draws participants and visitors from across the Western United States. And just about every day, our campus hosts an exhibit, community discussion, sporting event, or performance for all to enjoy.

On behalf of everyone who works at Cuyamaca College, I wish you nothing but success in following your dreams.

Julianna Barnes, Ed.D.
President
