

CUYAMACA COLLEGE CIVIC ENGAGEMENT WORKSHOPS SPRING SEMESTER 2025

FEBRUARY 6
2:00 TO 3:00 PM

APRIL 17
2:00 TO 3:00 PM

MAKING YOUR VOICE HEARD

Now more than ever the world needs strong leaders who advocate for change. Whether you consider yourself an activist or prefer to work behind the scenes, we can all better our community. Let's explore the social and personal value of civic engagement. After this workshop, you will understand the basics of civic engagement, learn how to get involved and know how to market your experiences on your resume.

Zoom Link, Click Here

SERVANT LEADERSHIP WITH A PURPOSE

Learn how to enact the key attributes of the Servant Leadership Theory. This workshop will allow you to reflect on your own experiences and values to discover how you can lead with service. Join us to rediscover your "why."

Zoom Link, Click Here

MARCH 6
2:00 TO 3:00 PM

MAY 8
2:00 TO 3:00 PM

ADVOCACY VISION AND VALUES

Advocacy rooted in personal values is both powerful and authentic. In this workshop, you will explore their core values, learn how to align them with your advocacy efforts, and create meaningful change driven by purpose and passion.

Zoom Link, Click Here

ACTION THROUGH ADVOCACY: SOCIAL CHANGE MODEL OF LEADERSHIP

Let's explore the core principles that drive impactful leadership. Learn how to articulate your personal values that inspire social change. Through engaging activities, you'll gain the tools to lead with purpose and create a meaningful difference in your community.

Zoom Link, Click Here

Students who complete two workshops by May 8, 2025 will receive a Civic Engagement leadership certificate at the Student Government awards ceremony in May 2025. Please contact the Student Affairs office at (619) 660-4612 if you have any questions.

CUYAMACA
COLLEGE